The screenshot shows the Royal Society of Chemistry website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Publishing Journals Books Databases' and a search icon. A red box highlights the 'Log in / register' link in the top left corner. Below the navigation bar, the page title is 'The Royal Society of Chemistry's Journals, Books and Databases'. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column is titled 'Our journals' and features a grid of journal covers including 'Sustainable Energy & Fuels', 'ChemComm', 'Chemical Science', 'MSDE', and 'Natural Product Reports'. A 'View all journals' button is located to the right of the grid. Below the grid is a search bar labeled 'Search our journals'. The right column is titled 'About our publications' and contains text describing the society's publishing portfolio. Below the main content area, there are two login sections. The left section is titled 'Log in with your Member, Subscriber or RSC Select Account' and includes fields for 'Account username' and 'Account password', a 'Log in' button, and a link to 'Register for a member account'. The right section is titled 'Sign in with your FREE Royal Society of Chemistry publishing personal account.' and includes fields for 'Username' and 'Password', a 'Sign in' button, and a link to 'Forgot Password'. A red box highlights the 'Find my institution >' button in the bottom left section, which is part of the 'Log in via your home institution' area. The footer of the page contains the text 'rsc.org > Journals, books & databases'.
